

STAMP JACKSON & PROCTER SOLICITORS

INTERNATIONAL INVESTMENT & TRADE

Commercial and business activities outside your home country present many challenges. A successful business in one country will need help to take opportunities abroad. Extra care is needed to ensure local legal matters are dealt with correctly and all risks to a business are fully understood.

Based around our successful UK property and corporate/commercial legal advice, our team have links in Europe, the USA and globally

Stamp Jackson & Procter's international law team have the experience you need when entering a new market in another legal jurisdiction. Based around our successful UK property and corporate/commercial legal advice, our team have links in Europe, the USA and globally that can assist you whether you intend to invest outside the UK or you are looking for advice on English law for your business. We help businesses with:

- Due diligence on investments
- Business regulations advice
- Secure property transactions
- Employment regulations guidance
- Tax and profit remittance advice

To ensure we maintain the best relationships for your business, Stamp Jackson & Procter is a member of Eurojuris. This organisation is the leading network of law firms in Europe and it covers 630 cities & locations in more than 40 countries worldwide. This enables us to provide companies, corporations, and individuals with direct legal advice and local representation all over Europe. This gives you the secure knowledge that you are taking the right advice from well established and reliable law firms.

Overseas business operations offer a tantalising opportunity to expand your business. To be sure you're taking the right steps seek legal advice at the earliest opportunity. It will reduce your management research time and help you clarify the potential business prospects.

For further details, please contact Simon Gittings or Alistair Latham, on 01482 324591, email ail@sjplaw.co.uk or visit our website www.sjplaw.co.uk or www.eurojuris.net

