Risks in the transport and logistics sector are increasing. Our advice seminar can help you control these risks so increasing profits, saving time and avoiding unnecessary disruption to your business.

The seminar will focus on:

How to Deal with Common Employment Problems in Transport and Logistics

 (Mark Daubney, Stamp Jackson & Procter Solicitors)

Dealing with employment problems wastes time and money. But taking a few simple steps can help you deal with difficult employees, improve your workforce and spot problems before they arise. The first part of the seminar will cover:

- How to make dealing with problem employees quicker, easier and less costly;
- Examples of common disciplinary problems in the transport and logistics industry - what should you do?;
- Spotting TUPE issues and avoiding taking on unwanted employees and costs; and
- How the new Agency Regulations will affect your business.

Important Issues in Haulage and Warehousing Risk Management and Insurance

 (Andrew Wakefield, Henderson Insurance Brokers)

Ensuring you do as much as possible in the area of risk management is key to avoiding unnecessary expense and unwanted claims in all areas of logistics business. The second part of the seminar will cover:

- Hauliers - using t&c's, accident management, sub-contracting issues and goods in transit.
- Warehousing - tenancy issues, continuity planning and environmental issues.
- Health and safety, Training Records and Inductions, PPE and Translation Issues.
