

STAMP JACKSON & PROCTER SOLICITORS

BUSINESS AND COMMERCIAL LAW

We don't tell you what the law says, we help you and your business to maximise your potential while protecting your current and future assets. Our team works with your business to understand how you operate and apply their experience and legal knowledge to achieve the right outcomes for you.

The partner led teams are tailored to your business requirements and available whenever you need advice.

Stamp Jackson & Procter's many years of commercial legal experience ensure we can provide you and your business with timely and useful advice to minimise risks and avoid delays. The partner led teams are tailored to your business requirements and available whenever you need advice. As a pro-active firm we support you by anticipating future requirements, knowing your business and delivering value through sound legal advice. Through our global professional network, our expertise means we have the right solutions for your firm's current and future legal requirements, allowing you to concentrate on developing your business.

For further details of how we can help please contact Alistair Latham or Mark Daubney for assistance with:

Company commercial affairs:

- Commercial contracts
- Compliance and risk management
- Dispute resolution
- Credit control

STAMP JACKSON & PROCTER

SOLICITORS

We aim to know your business so the advice you receive will be succinct, practical and tailored to your needs.

Business sales and acquisitions:

- Mergers and acquisitions
- Shareholder and partnership agreements
- MBO's and MBIN's
- Business structures and strategic planning
- Share and asset re-organisations
- Incorporation and set ups
- Exit strategies
- Insolvency

Employment law services:

- The Employment Year Service
- Health and safety advice
- Regular employment updates

We aim to know your business so the advice you receive will be succinct, practical and tailored to your needs.

Your business will benefit from:

- Increasing your firm's potential for profits growth
- Retaining that profit for your own needs and that of your business
- Freeing your time to concentrate on building a successful business and future for you to enjoy
- For additional details please visit our website www.sjplaw.co.uk