Investment in the United Kingdom represents a valuable opportunity for Polish businesses. Our comprehensive seminar explores the potential in specific sectors of the British markets, looking in-depth at how that potential can be realised. Hull (which has a significant Polish diaspora) is the capital city of the Humber region in Northern England which will feature largely in the seminar and already enjoys good trading links with Pomerania. The Humber region is very similar in its business make-up to Pomerania having both numerous modern industrial and commercial centres and extensive agribusiness.

Windmill Gasiewski & Roman and Stamp Jackson & Procter have invited several leading organisations to present and explain what investing in the United Kingdom can do for a business in Poland.

Areas covered include:

- | Commercial and industrial opportunities in the United Kingdom
- | Direct investment in British business
- | Renewables and green energy
- | Agribusiness and related investment
- | The British economic climate
- | Tax and accounting in the United Kingdom

Our experts are sharing their wealth of knowledge allowing you how to make informed decisions when looking for business opportunities in the United Kingdom. Whether making business contacts, small, medium or large business investments this seminar will provide the professional advice you need to get started.

A trade mission from the UK will be in Gdańsk when the seminar is held and mission members will attend the seminar and giving you an opportunity to discuss directly potential business in the UK.
